

29.30.31 October 2015

Bangalore International Exhibition Center, Bengaluru

SPEAKER PROFILE

Hitesh K Arora

Chief Information Officer
(Indian Subcontinent)
Yum! Brands (India)

Delegate Registration

Global Technology, Operations and Sales Leader in Financial, Retail and Technology Services domains, with over 25 years experience. Has served blue chip organizations across emerging markets and the Asia Pacific: Nucleus Software, Polaris Financial Technologies, NIIT Technologies, Bank of America, Max Life Insurance and Yum! Brands.

Hitesh has led transformational change across various organizational portfolios including P & L management, delivering greenfield start-ups, significant cost restructuring, ensuring organization's future readiness and building the capability of people, processes and platforms.

Experience of long-term strategic planning with a strong track record leading organizations from vision through execution. Have consistently delivered industry-leading growth and producing quantum bottom-line performance.

Across various organizations, he has successfully established global operating models through driving consolidation, platform standardization, core Insurance/Banking/ERP/Processing systems, organizational restructuring, architectural road-maps, strategic sourcing, off-shoring, lean operations and enabling Social, Digital, Analytics & Cloud-based initiatives.

He takes a relationship-driven approach with business leaders, customers, strategic suppliers and employees to harness global talent.

Hitesh is a respected mentor and coach in identifying & developing potential talent in people.